

Fuel for Thought

Thanks for Ecofest!

Thanks to all those who worked hard to make Ecofest 2017 a great success last Sunday. Thanks especially to Jen Russell and the Gladstone Festivals and Events team, Gladstone Regional Council and all the sponsors.

Thanks also to the Gladstone Community who turned out in numbers on a truly beautiful blue sky day, and for the many who dropped by to say hello. It was especially great seeing so many kids taking an interest and it seems like the very popular QER yoyos were a great source of fun. We'll be announcing the winner of our guessing competition in the next edition of Fuel for Thought.

We're already looking forward to the next Ecofest which seems to get bigger and better every year!
